ABOUT SHARON DELANEY MC CLOUD

Sharon is an Emmy Award-winning broadcaster, TEDx Speaker, Certified Diversity Executive CDE®, adjunct professor, agency owner, cancer slayer and communications expert whose goal is to help people make impact in business and life by embracing the power of communication. As you'll hear her say often, words matter.

By sharing how storytelling in business can move hearts and minds, Sharon imparts expert insights to leaders and their teams so they can drive business results. Audiences worldwide describe her programs as "deeply relevant, moving and actionable."

Sharon is a fierce advocate for women in business and develops programs designed to elevate their career trajectory. Featured in Thrive Global, Enterprising Women, Sheryl Sandberg's Option B platform and co-author of Keep Going, Memoirs of Strength, Courage & Perseverance, Sharon shows people how they can inspire, influence and ignite change. Her diverse client list includes Cisco, Lenovo, Eaton, 7-Eleven, Duke University, UNC Health, Florida State University, SAS, Biogen, Merz and many more.

Prior to launching her 3 time honored INC 5000 company, Sharon spent 20 years as an Emmy award-winning television journalist covering everything from NASA to politics to the Super Bowl at stations across the country.
